WOODLAND HIRE · MIDFORD, NEAR BATH

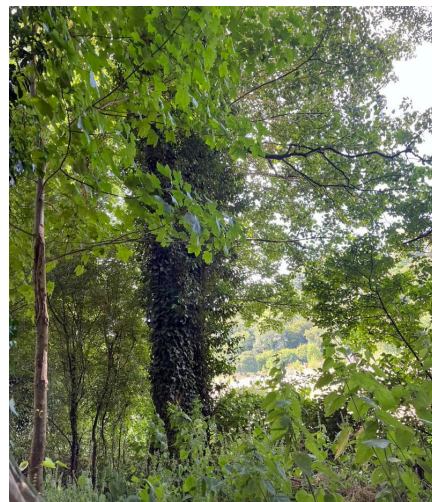

Otter Brook

A yurt, a fire circle and nearly seven acres of wild woodland, yours for the day.

Otter Brook lies beside Midford Brook, five minutes outside Bath. At its heart are a Mongolian yurt and a timber fire circle, ready for workshops, classes, outdoor learning and small gatherings.

We open the woods for hire on only a small number of days each year, so dates go early.

THE SPACE

The yurt

A traditional Mongolian yurt, 6.5 metres across, with a painted crown, a wood-burning stove, rugs and cushions. Warm and dry whatever the weather.

The fire circle

Curved timber benches around a raised fire bowl, a few steps from the yurt door. A natural place to gather, talk and warm up.

The woods and brook

Old railway woodland, a meandering brook and a meadow beyond, full of wildlife and seasonal change. There is plenty of room to explore, study and slow down.

IDEAL FOR

- Yoga, movement and wellbeing sessions
- Nature, craft and bushcraft workshops
- Outdoor learning and field study for schools, home-education groups and colleges
- Team days and small gatherings
- Photo and film shoots

Something else in mind? Just ask.

GOOD TO KNOW

- Half-day or full-day hire, daytime only.
- One booking at a time, so the space is yours.
- Compost toilet on site.
- Off-grid: no mains electricity or running water.
- Limited parking by the entrance, so please car-share. The D2 bus stops 100 metres away.
- Uneven ground, so come dressed for outdoors.
- Fires in the fire circle only, no amplified music, and please leave the woods as you found them.
